Alternatively, if you opt for a build ³ focus more on Burning Wound, then it is recommended to play Felblade to pair with Demon Blades for more applications. 2021: Revised for patch 9.0.5 with updates in Talent, Covenant and Legendary sections. Havoc DH Talents and Builds The recommended talent options for Havoc Demon Hunter in Mythic+ are as follows: Havoc tends to have two sets of playable builds, focusing on an Eye Beam-centric configuration ³ using Cycle of Hatred, or a Blade Dance-centric configuration ³ First Blood. 2020: Updated page for Shadowlands ³ preparation Care. Chaos Nova is an AoE stun tool available to Havoc, which stun all nearby targets for 2 seconds in a 1-minute cooldown at a cost of 30 Fury. 2.3. Level 3 Talents Unbound Chaos provides an extremely high AoE on demand that has no limit and has some synergy with Night Fae, grooved independently of the construction³ n. 2.2. Level 2 Talents Insatiable Hunger works best with Hate Cycle to generate more Fury constantly to trigger restarts with Chaos Strike. The 4-piece bonus gives approximately 60 seconds of cooling reduction (slightly lower in Mythic+ due to downtime) ³ Metamorphosis, which has some synergy with Venthyr but not enough to make it dominant. This should be used as often as possible both to prevent dangerous releases, and to capitalize on Fury's generation ³ additional global cooling (see our Disrupt macro in the Havoc Demon Hunter macro page). The importance of being versatile and able to adapt to any situation is ³ a key factor here, and one of the main reasons why some talent decisions are made that differ from ideal raid selections. This, however, has a component that harms its consistency, so you should not trust. Oct 12 01 Nov. This covers the control of AOE crowds and offensive dissipations, along with the usefulness of Buff Group. Burning Wound serves as a strong bridge between the one -target approach and AOE when combined with demon blades to apply it multiple targets. 3. Along with the damage, utility such as interruptions, dissipations and control are vital to handle many of the challenges you will encounter. Due to the long metamorphosis of cooling, and the From the re-use time restart ³ the eye beam it gives, you should also know when it will be the most valuable. In situations where you play with Felblade, Demon Blades is a better choice ³ here, especially when combined with a burning wound. Havoc Demon Hunter Mythic+ Talent Build If you want more information ³ all the talent options and if some can be useful in certain situations, you should use our dedicated talent page. 2022: Page reviewed and approved for patch 9.2.05 November. That said, however, the Covenant and Soulbind selections have many different factors, so we recommend to see our page and discuss them for more information³ n. This is more of a niche ³. Glaive Tempest also offers strong AOE with more consistency, but it costs fury, so it can cause some disruption ³ the cycle of hate constructions. Havoc Demon Hunter Covenants Page 5. Gear options and trinkets for Havoc Demon Hunter in Mythic+ There are no significant alterations in the gear options you need to make ³ compared to normal single-lens situations and AOE, however, we recommend you simulate your own character to do of course. Havoc Demon Hunter Legendaries 4. In this guide, we will discuss the finer points of Havoc Demon Hunter and how ³ make the most of it, how ³ prepare and configure your character, and some tips to try harder. When killed, you get URH Cipher decrypted for 10 seconds, which gives a 200% cooling recovery rate and restores 10% health and ³ every second. Necrolord also has a place, while Kyrian falls on the back of the pack. Finally, the Glaive Master helps the tank to Kite Enemies if necessary, so they are all viable selections. 2.1. Level 1 talents combine with blind rage excellently with the cycle of collective hatred and distress or Dark if used, increasing the frequency of your eye ray joins significantly. Darkness is a group defense tool that can have some marginal uses to reduce the risk of high -group AOE effects to your group. Burning hate is never taken. taking. Of these shock absorbers equals approximately 20 seconds of their long cooling skills, and will also allow you to shoot extremely ripping rotation skills. This is great to interrupt large groups of enemies, and you can also do free with a reduced reuse time when the talent of unleashed power is used. This will depend on the affixes and the composition of your group, varying each other for large pulls or chief damage is more desirable. Shadowlands Mythic+ Season 2 2. Fine options are totally a personal option since they do not provide tangible benefits. There are often very little HAV can do outside an emergency Chaos Nova cast to give the tanks the opportunity to get the day, but if you unload, do not be surprised if some enemies become to hit. This makes 3 different relics deposit in specific packages along a dungeon, and always with each boss when committed. 7. Trail of Ruin is a very niche option, but not generally recommended due to the lost explosion. How much dangerous is a key, more beneficial becomes soul surrendering, due to sustaining. Dec 08 Therefore, when you play hac your responsibility to contribute to the group of groups, it will be greater than in the major The strategy is crucial. Try to coordinate with your group that you want to the package and focus it, but know that if you use everything in the pull you can kill the mistake accidentally, so be careful. Disrupt is the Havoc interruption tool in a time of reuse of 15 seconds that also generates Fury when used. The demon apprentice should never be played here. Cycle of Hatred pairs with Blind Fury and Collective Anguish if you are aiming for more uncapped AoE, while First Blood is for any situation where you are playing Dancing with Fate and are aiming for a more balanced damage profile. It is also the most consistent, but is very AoE-focused. If you want to know more about gear to aim for, you can look at our gear page. Many options here are flexible, but these two choices tend to define what else you use throughout the tree. Trinkets tend to lean toward on use or proc effects that are powerful in all situations rather than specific ones, so your mileage may vary compared to those that are picked in raids. Potency Conduit choices are more specific depending on the Covenant you are playing, and what your aim is within a dungeon: Endurance Conduits should prioritize both Condensed Anima Sphere and Viscous Ink for the passive benefits, but Fel Defender is also an option if you feel the extra Blur uptime will be useful. Essence Break has some fringe uses with Momentum builds, but falls behind. 9.2 Tier Sets for Havoc Demon Hunter in Mythic+ Havoc's tier set bonus provides flat damage increases to both Chaos Strike and Blade Dance (and the respective Metamorphosis equivalents) which equate to passive benefits, but do not alter the rotation. However, if there is one shot potential that you can predict, Netherwalk will be invaluable. invaluable.
